4.) Summer Update

Mr. Mikkelsen gave the committee an update on the overall preparation that is happening for the summer season. Mr. Mikkelsen is in the process of securing staff for the summer and has secured all of the bands for their annual "Tunes on Tuesdays" and finalizing the summer movies.

5.) Review and Possible Action on the Fourth of July Event

4th of July chairperson, Mary Inden presented to the Recreation Committee her proposal for the addition of a second Revolutionary War re-enactment British Soldiers for the 4th of July event. In the past years there have been American Revolutionary War re-enactment soldiers. During the discussion, Mrs. Inden was unsure how many additional re-enactors there would be with the addition on the 2nd group, and informed that they would like to sleep over at the Village Park on the 4th of July and possibly the 3rd of July as well. Mrs. Inden also informed the committee that there would be a possibility of 2 horses that would be a part of the re-enactment and would also need to stay overnight at the Village Park. After discussion Mr. Coffey motioned to approve the Revolutionary War Re-Enactment group with a maximum of 30 re-enactors, with camping on July 3rd and 4th with further discussion on the limits of camp fires and no horses being used in the re-enactment until further discussion and more information can be collected. Dr. Retzack seconded the motion and the motion approved 7-0

6.) Splash Pad Update

Mr. Mikkelsen updated the board on the fundraising efforts for the Splash Pad, the Village of Elm Grove has recently received a few very generous donations from residents and now the total funds left to raise are approximately $45,000.

7.) Review and Recommendation of Splash Pad Bid

Mr. De Angelis, and Mr. Mikkelsen presented the Splash Pad and Shade Structure Bid. The bid opening was held at 2:00pm on March 21st. The Village of Elm Grove received one bid from Mid-City Corporation and the bid for the construction for the Splash Pad was $994,500.00, with the addition of the Shade Structure at $108,600.00 with total project cost at $1,103,100.00. It was Mr. De Angelis, Mr. Mikkelsen and R.A. Smith, Inc.'s recommendation that the board reject the bid and reopen the Splash Pad and Shad Structure Bid. Trustee Cornell moved to approve the motion of recommending to the Board of Trustees to rejecting Mid-City Corporations bid and Mr. Coffey seconded the motion and the motion approved 7-0.

3.) Review and Act on Donation Request from Junior Guild

After discussion it was requested to table the request pending the completion of the Splash Pad.

8.) Review and Act on 2019 Pool Pass Prices
