

Library Director's Report
January 16, 2023

a. Library statistics, staff activity, adult programming and other news

- Statistics [see packet]
- Noah viewed a training webinar about new adult titles published in the Fall
- Staff Recommends - January
- Adult Program stats:
 - December classic holiday films, attendance: 13
 - Toulouse-Lautrec art history lecture series program, attendance: 65
 - December game night, attendance: 2
- Upcoming adult programs:
 - Adult Winter Reading Program in progress, through mid-March 2023
 - “Cutting the Cord: Controlling Cable & Internet Costs”, Monday January 16, 2023 at 6:30pm
 - Friday film, February 3, 2023 at 1pm: Till (see flyer)
 - Cornerstone History Symposium Art History Lecture series continues: Tuesday February 7, 2023 at 6:30pm: “Monet: A Fleeting Moment of Color and Light”. No registration required. [see flyer]
 - “Prepare to Care” family caregiving workshop presented by AARP Wisconsin, Wednesday February 8, 2023 at 10:30am (see flyer)
 - Game Night, Wednesday February 8, 2023 at 5:30pm (card and board games!) (see flyer)

b. Youth report (see packet)

- Program statistics: participants in December story times, therapy pets, and Family Holiday event
- Build It club, Wednesday 1/25/2023, 4-5pm
- Story times and Play groups, January through April, 2023
- Therapy pets, January through May, 2023
- Sue attended a Youth Services meeting at Bridges Library System

c. Gifts (one gift)