4. Hearing of the Public. Dave Cronin, President of FOEGL

a. A new fiscal year has begun. In addition to FOEGL's veteran members, there are several new members. One of the big challenges is to improve communications throughout the various platforms of FOEGL. Would like to get a software package to help keep track of donations.

b. FOEGL may set aside some money each year to support an element of the facilities assessment results.

c. Dave Cronin's goal, in his last year as FOEGL president, is to bring back Bookie Cookie in some capacity.

d. This past fiscal year's Lights of Love campaign and Book Sale were very successful, allowing FOEGL to continue with their donations to the library.

5. Youth Summer Library Program Update – Sue Daniels, Assistant Director and Youth Services Librarian. “Oceans of Possibilities” is the theme of the summer. It will be the first full spectrum program since 2019. As always, a reading challenge is the centerpiece of the summer program. The program is on Beanstack and a paper version is available as well. Students who have a Beanstack account at school and at the library can now link them together. The Elmbrook School District provides Beanstack to all students. At this point we have 120 children and 15 teens signed up to participate in our summer program.

6. Waukesha County Library Standards, Karol Kennedy, Bridges System Director.

On April 12, 2022 the Waukesha County Board of Supervisors approved a new Library Services Plan for the period 2022-2026. Wisconsin Statutes 43.11(3)(d) requires that the proposed standards be approved by at least 50% of the library boards in the county representing 80% of the population of municipalities with libraries in addition to the county board approval. Following a presentation by Bridges System Director, Karol Kennedy and discussion, upon motion made by Dave Hecker and seconded by Karen Sopik, the Elm Grove Library Board of Trustees endorsed the proposed new Waukesha County Library Standards as set forth in the Waukesha County Library Services Plan for the period 2022-2026.
