Review and act on delinquent 2018 personal property taxes

Mary Stredni, Village Clerk, submitted a list of 2018 personal property taxes that remain unpaid. The list totaled $3028.54. There was discussion of the Village's options for collecting this tax as some of the businesses on the list remain operating in Elm Grove such as Firehouse Subs which is the largest on the list at $841.06. Some also are for businesses which have now been sold and are under new ownership such as the Silver Spur at $507.93. The committee decided to table this item and requested that staff further research what options are available for collection and perhaps what other communities are doing.
